DETAILED ACTION

1. The claims 1-30 are pending in the instant office action.

Restriction

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions, which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1-9, drawn to method of production of silica products using silicase or carbonic anhydrase polypeptide comprising the amino acid sequence of SEQID NO: 1.

Group II, claims 9-10, drawn to silica products made by method of group I.

Group III. Claims 11 and 22-24, drawn silicase comprising the amino acid sequence of SEQ ID NO: 1.

Group IV. Claims 12-18, 21, drawn to vector, cell, DNA encoding silicase comprising amino acid sequence of SEQ ID NO: 1.

Group V. Claims 25-26, drawn to method of identifying inhibitor or activator of polypeptide of group III.

Group VI, claim 27, drawn to method of production of pharmaceuticals comprising inhibitor or activator of silicase.

Group VI, claims 28-29, drawn to method of prevention or treatment of silicosis using silicase of group III.

Group VII, claim 30, drawn to method of using silicase of group III. or DNA of group IV for modulating the resorbability of silicones and silicone implants.

3. The inventions listed as Groups I-VII do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Groups II-IV, and groups I and V-VII do not share their technical feature because one set of Groups involve products whereas other set of Groups involve method steps. Thus, while the products of Groups II are made by the method of group I, former product can be made by other methods having other technical features. Groups II-IV do not share same technical feature because they involve different products having different structures. Groups I and V-VII do not share same technical feature because these method steps comprise different steps, use different products and produce different products.

Furthermore, the technical feature linking group I-VII appears to be that they all relate to silicase. The silicase protein does not constitute a "special technical feature" as defined by PCT Rule 13.2, because it does not claim a feature which defines a contribution over the prior art as silicase protein is taught by Schroder et al. (Prog. Mol. Subcell. Biol. 2003, Vol. 33, 249-268).

4. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement is traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Art Unit: 1652
